

From: wbhalert
To: wbhalert
Date: 22 December 2008 2:22 pm
Subject: Bogus Letter Warning

The Food Standards Agency has released a warning to all food businesses about a bogus letter purporting to be from them. The letter demands payment for supposed breaches of food hygiene legislation. Please do not respond to this letter. For more information go to:

<http://www.food.gov.uk/news/newsarchive/2008/dec/letters>

Note: You are receiving this email because your business is registered on the Wealden Business Help database. If you no longer want to receive email updates from Wealden Business Help or the Wealden Business Focus team please email us at foodandsafety@wealden.gov.uk